Media Relations Team Orlando Health

Hello!

I'm Paige Reid

I am here because I would love to join your team's Icon Campaign for Orlando Health Arnold Palmer: A Children's Miracle Network Hospital.

Who am I?

That's a great question. Let's start with the basics!

I consider myself a person who is:

Creative with design and coordination
Efficient in prioritization
Always willing to accept a challenge

All four years of my undergraduate degree, I was a participant in Dance Marathon at FSU.

See that shirt? Yeah, it's a Comma Club shirt. I was able to raise a grand total of $5,000 during my 4 years of dancing For The Kids.

Leadership? Got that, too!

Morale Captains serve as the advertisers and recruiters leading up to, and during, the 40-hour event.

We bring the energy and excitement to all DM Events!

We all have unique personalities and different gifts we can give to the world, and just being yourself is the best way to do it.

I believe this Icon Campaign can benefit from a person who is:

Dedicated to the Children's Miracle Network Has a passion for helping others in an effective way Loves to think outside of the box when taking on a task

Why me?

Dedicated

I am not only dedicated to finding a cure, but I am also committed to helping others in any way I can. Whether it is volunteering or fundraising, I am always making time to help others in need. There are many ways to help in your community, and it is essential to support the people around you.

Innovative

Thinking of ways to get people involved is not an easy task. To get people involved, you need to get them excited and ensure they feel appreciated. When recruiting and fundraising, you must think of different ways to engage your audience to get them excited. I used multiple methods to gather participants and fundraisers for the event, which ultimately led to my success.

Passionate

I spent a lot of my childhood at Joe DiMaggio's Children Hospital, and can empathize with families in these situations. The Children's Miracle Network provides a less stressful experience for children and their families during the most challenging times of their lives. CMN provides not only research funding for a cure but state of the art equipment and developmental learning tools.

I believe I am a great fit!

Being a part of this campaign would be a fantastic opportunity, and I hope you can recognize my dedication to this cause.
